

Job Posting

Collaborative Planning Program Coordinator

The Role FTE 35 hours

This exciting role reflects CVFSA commitment to supporting and empowering families and youth in regards to planning and decision making for/with their children and youth.

The CPP Coordinator arranges this process in the form of Family Group Conference Meetings, Youth Transition Conferences, Family Case Planning Conferences and Family Circle Planning.

With a commitment to promoting the participation of children youth and families in their service development and planning, the CPP Coordinator works in an inclusive, child/youth centered and solution focused way.

Qualifications:

Bachelor's Degree in Child and Youth Care, Social Work or related field.
A combination of post-secondary education and experience could be considered.

Preferred skills:

Sound working knowledge of Ministry of Children and Family Development Collaborative Planning standards as well as Aboriginal Policy and Practice Framework in British Columbia. Knowledge and experience with integrated case management, understanding children's rights and knowledge and understanding of cultural diversity. Sound knowledge of child protection issues and associated legislation. An approach that is strength based and trauma informed. Working knowledge of family systems and experience working with families. An approach that is strength based and trauma informed.

Computer skills Microsoft Office, online case management. Also familiarity with accreditation is a benefit. Computer skills Microsoft Office, online case management. Also familiarity with accreditation is a benefit.

Apply to: Executive Director: email diane.d@cvfsa.org , fax (250) 338-2343 or mail: Comox Valley Family Services Association, 1415 Cliffe Avenue, Courtenay, BC V9N 2K6.

'CVFSA employs non-discriminatory hiring practices, including race, creed, color, disability, age, sex, religion, sexual orientation, ancestry, or national origin.'