Job Summary:

The Early Learning Child Care Worker at New Beginnings Young Parent Daycare and Eagle's Nest Early Learning Centre will plan and implement a developmentally appropriate childcare program, providing a nurturing environment that encourages children's intellectual, physical, and emotional growth. This position requires knowledge of the Early Learning Framework and involves close cooperation with the Child Care Supervisor, school staff and other Child Care Workers.

Your Role:

Archway's Early Learning Childcare Worker with the New Beginnings Young Parent Program Daycare and Eagle's Nest Early Learning Centre contributes by:

- Working with the children, family, staff, and supervisor to provide an engaging early childhood experience.
- Carrying out developmentally appropriate activities and experiences for the children, which may include indoor/outdoor, and active/quiet activities.
- Attending to the children's physical needs which may include toileting, eating, sleeping, and other basic needs.
- Attending to the children's psychological and emotional needs which may include cuddling, rocking, and holding the child.
- Providing a healthy, safe, caring, and nurturing environment. Administering First Aid when necessary. Observing and removing potential hazards.
- Building and maintaining relationships with the parents/caregivers, either in person or over the phone.
- Using the Early Learning Framework and emergent curriculum to provide an environment that reflects the interests of the child.

This position is a great fit for someone who is passionate about early childhood education, enjoys creating nurturing and developmentally appropriate environments, and excels in building supportive relationships with children and their families. The ideal candidate will have strong communication skills, knowledge of the BC Early Learning Framework, and the ability to engage with diverse backgrounds. They should be adept at addressing both the physical and emotional needs of children, ensuring a safe and healthy environment, and collaborating effectively with staff and community partners.
