Job Summary:

The Childcare Worker at Eagle's Nest Early Learning Centre and New Beginnings Young Parent Daycare will plan and implement a developmentally appropriate childcare program, offering a nurturing environment for the care of children, encouraging their intellectual, physical, and emotional growth. This position will require knowledge of the Early Learning Framework and will work in close cooperation with the Childcare Supervisor, school staff and other Childcare Workers.

Your Role:

Archway's Childcare Worker with the Eagle's Nest and New Beginnings contributes by:

- Working with the children, family, staff, and supervisor, to provide an engaging early childhood experience.
- Carrying out developmentally appropriate activities and experiences for the children, which may include indoor/outdoor, and active/quiet activities.
- Attending to the children's physical needs which may include toileting, eating, sleeping, and other basic needs.
- Attending to the children's psychological and emotional needs which may include cuddling, rocking, and holding the child.
- Providing a healthy, safe, caring, and nurturing environment. Administering First Aid when necessary. Observing and removing potential hazards.
- Building and maintaining relationships with the parents/caregivers, either in person or over the phone.
- Using the Early Learning Framework and emergent curriculum to provide an environment that reflects the interests of the child.

This position is a great fit for someone who enjoys working with children and families, is flexible, caring, and attentive to the children's needs!

Our Offer

- Wage: $29.10 per hour (includes wage enhancement).
- A part-time position at 20 hours per week, availability Mondays to Fridays, from 7:00 AM to 5:30 PM.
- Temporary until May 2026.
- Benefits include:
 - Three weeks' pro-rated vacation.
 - Three pro-rated wellness days per year.
 - Pro-rated sick leave days per year.
 - Opportunity to exchange a statutory holiday for a cultural day celebration.
 - A great benefits plan including extended health and dental; you choose your plan.
 - Employee and Family Assistance Program.
 - Access to online wellness resources including newsletters, physical health videos and wellness events.
 - Free use of Archway's wellness equipment.
 - Great in-house training opportunities.
 - Rewarding work in a positive and supportive environment.
 - Work/Life balance.

Getting an Interview – you will be considered if you have:

- Early Childhood Educator License to practice
- Minimum 1 year experience
- Understanding of the Early Learning Framework.
- Knowledge and awareness of Indigenous Learning

The Job Requires you to have:

- The ability to collaborate and work with family, staff, and community partners to provide a holistic and nurturing environment for the child.
- The ability to adapt and engage, which reflects the needs and interest of the children.
- The ability to work in an environment where there is a high level of noise and distraction from children.
- The ability to pay close attention to the children's physical and emotional needs.
- The ability to be involved in direct delivery of activities which may include moderate physical activity of walking, standing, bending, and lifting children up to 40 lbs.
- The ability to work outside normal office hours, including evenings, may be required.
- A current First Aid certificate is a condition of employment.
- A satisfactory Criminal Records Check is a condition of employment.

Closing date is August 31, 2025.

Archway's goal is to be a diverse workforce that is representative, at all job levels, of the people we serve. Equity and diversity are essential to excellence. An open and diverse community fosters the inclusion of voices that have been underrepresented or discouraged. We encourage applications from members of groups that have been marginalized on any grounds enumerated under the B.C. Human Rights Code, including Indigenous identity, race, colour, ancestry, place of origin, political belief, religion, marital status, family status, physical or mental disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or age.

We acknowledge that we gather on the traditional and unceded territory of the Stó:lō people. Stó:lō territory extends from the mouth of the Fraser River to Boston Bar. Locally, this includes the Matsqui First Nation and Sumas First Nation. We give them thanks for sharing their land and resources with us.

We invest in the mental health and wellbeing of our employees.

We're proud to share that Archway was recently recognized for having a 5-Star Safety Culture!

Every year, Canadian Occupational Safety (COS) recognizes organizations across Canada that exemplify excellence in fostering robust workplace safety cultures. Winners demonstrate a commitment to proactive risk management, comprehensive training, and employee engagement.

This award reflects our ongoing commitment to creating a workplace environment where employees feel safe, seen, and supported.
