

Where ideas work

Ministry of Children and Family Development
Langley, Nanaimo, Surrey, Prince George (Hybrid)

Flexible work options are available. There are three (4) Licensed Psychologist positions available.

Licensed Psychologist

$100,090.56 - $127,397.44 annually

The Ministry of Children and Family Development (MCFD) provides services and support to help children, youth, and families thrive. Its work includes child protection, mental health care, and support for children with special needs, all delivered in partnership with communities and Indigenous organizations. Build a meaningful career working with supportive teams to provide specialized counseling and mental health treatment. Your work will help shape effective services that make a real difference in the lives of children, youth, and families.

We're hiring Licensed Psychologists for key clinical roles supporting youth in the justice system and individuals with eating disorders. Whether you're leading a team or providing expert psychological assessments and therapy, your work will make a lasting impact on recovery, rehabilitation, and wellbeing.

The BC Public Service is committed to creating a diverse workplace to represent the population we serve and to better meet the needs of our citizens. Consider joining our team and being part of an innovative, inclusive and rewarding workplace.

Qualifications:

- Ph. D. in Clinical Psychology and registered with the College of Health and Care Professionals of BC (CHCPBC). Applicants with a Ph. D. and eligible for registration with the College of Health and Care Professionals of BC (CHCPBC) may be considered for appointment at a lower classification. As a condition of continued employment, such an appointee is required to become registered as a Licensed Psychologist.

For more information, a complete list of qualifications and to apply online, please go to:
<https://www2.gov.bc.ca/gov/content/careers-myhr/job-seekers/featured-careers/social-service>